

The NAB's position on satellite radio is clearly anti-competitive. The big players in the radio business have already squelched competition here in Atlanta. Satellite radio is opening up the market and providing a needed fresh breath of competition.